

ACADIA UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

APPLICATION FOR A TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIP

TO THE APPLICANT:

A limited number of Teaching Assistantships are available to qualified full-time Master of Education students. An Assistantship is valued at approximately four thousand dollars and recipients are expected to provide service to the School for a maximum of five hours per week (fifty hours per academic year September to April).

NAME: _____

ACADIA ID NUMBER (IF KNOWN) _____

PRESENT ADDRESS _____

TELEPHONE: _____

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND (University degree(s), dates of graduation, major area of study):

TEACHING AND/OR PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

PROPOSED GRADUATE PROGRAM (Name of program and brief description of interest):

Will you receive financial support from employer or other source?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please provide detail.

Please indicate whether you have keyboarding/computer skills:

Additional information (if any):

Important Information:

Students must be full-time and registered in a thesis (EDUC 5966) in order to receive a Teaching Assistantship.

Funding for Teaching Assistantships is provided and administered by the Office of Research and Graduate Studies of Acadia University. Acceptance of TA funding constitutes a contract between the fund recipient (the graduate student) and the Office of Research and Graduate Studies. Students who withdraw from the thesis course for any reason after accepting TA funding are required to repay all TA funds advanced.

Signature of applicant: _____

Date: _____