

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Room 415, Beveridge Arts Centre

The Department of English offers a wide selection of courses in the literatures of Canada, Great Britain, the United States, and other English-speaking countries. It also offers a series of courses on creative writing. Those who intend to teach, enter professional schools, and proceed to graduate studies will find the Honours program especially valuable. The discipline of English trains students to analyze, develop an argument, and polish writing and speaking skills.

English core (30h):

1. Engl 1406 (1413/1423);
2. Engl 2006;
3. 3h from Engl 2163, 2173, 2273 or 2283;
4. 3h from 2286, 3283 or 3293;
5. 3h from 2383, 2393, 2773 or 2386*;
6. 3h from 2476*, 3483 or 2783
7. 3h from 2563, 2573, 2683, 2693, 3833 or 3843;
8. 3h from 3663, 3773, 3793, 3673, 3683, 3693

*The extra 3 hours in a six-hour course will be subsumed in the 18 hours of English at the 2000/3000/4000 level.

Bachelor of Arts with Honours in English

The English core; 3h from Engl 3163, 3173 or 3073; Engl 4996; Engl 4060; 21h of English at the 2000/3000/4000 level (of which 6 hours must be at the 4th year level exclusive of 4060 and 4996) (60h)

Bachelor of Arts with Major in English

The English core plus 18h of English at the 2000/3000/4000 level. (48h)